BERLIN'S PUBLIC
LIBRARIES ARE THERE FOR
YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN

Refugees
welcome!

We look forward to your visit!

All the 67 libraries are places for reading, learning, meeting others, dreaming and un-winding. The libraries provide books and media for children, young people and adults.

They also provide reading-for-children sessions, literature readings, film evenings and exhibitions.

No admission charge!

We have the following

Books, films, music CDs, games

Various language media

Media for language learning

Current German daily newspapers and magazines and some international ones

Media for children and young people

Help given in media searches and selection

Free Wifi

Internet and computer stations

Areas for concentrated and quiet reading

You need a library membership card for borrowing the media. It is obtainable free-of-charge in all the public libraries. For that we need your temporary permission to stay or lodging certificate.

Children under 18 need a consent statement from their parents, guardian or mentor.
